Today's stop is in the stunning and picturesque Lofoten Islands, where the scenery is a mix of wild and idyllic. Discover the coastline, with its chalky, white, and sandy beaches alongside charming fishing villages, which still thrive on a vibrant fishing industry. Weather permitting, the ship will venture into the narrow Trollfjord, which offers an excellent chance to spot majestic sea eagles.

Day 5: Bodø-Ørnes-Sandnessjøen-Brønnøysund-Rørвик

At this point the ship has ventured so far south that it has left the polar land behind and crossed the Arctic Circle. Summer brings the magical midnight sun. Sail past numerous small islands, islets, and mountains, including the unique Torghatten mountain, which features a hole in its centre. Optional hike on the mountain to explore the cavern.

Day 6: Trondheim-Kristiansund-Molde-Ålesund

Sail through the vast Trondheim fjord, flanked by rolling farmland on either side, before reaching the coast and the open sea once more. Kristiansund offers the opportunity for a scenic bus tour along the Atlantic Ocean Road, considered one of the world's most beautiful drives. The road winds along islets and reefs, and after the tour, rejoin the ship in Molde.

Day 7: Torvik-Måløy-Florø-Bergen

On the final day sail through a varied coastal landscape that features rugged rocky mountains and an intricate network of straits and waterways between countless islands. The magnificent fjords and glaciers are located further inland. The voyage ends in Bergen, however there is still time for one last adventure – a captivating excursion through the city's history, flavours, and breathtaking views. In the late afternoon, board the train from Bergen to Oslo and overnight.
